1. Georgia Buckeyes requires all head coaches to abide by NWGYFL guidelines pertaining to coaches.
2. Georgia Buckeyes requires all coaches to be Heads Up Certified and recommends all assistant coaches also take the course.
3. All Coaches must have their name, address and at least one working telephone number listed in the Georgia Buckeyes database to be certified.
4. During the season, ALL coaches should maintain a current address or working phone number in the Georgia Buckeyes database. If it is discovered that a coach does not, a warning will be given to the League Member to rectify the situation. Failure to correct the inaccurate information prior to the next scheduled game will result in a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) to the League member.
5. At any time, before or during the season the Commission may recommend to suspend and/or dismiss any individual from coaching or having any coaching related activities with the Georgia Buckeyes
6. While under Suspension and or Dismissal, a coach may not attend practice
7. If the coach is the sole guardian of a player, the coach may, for emergency purposes only, remain in their automobile during practice at the practice site and not in view of the practice.
8. On game day during a suspension, a suspended coach may be allowed to be in the team's stands, but may not have contact with the team at any time. This includes before, during, or after the game. If the coach has additional responsibilities at the park said coach may perform their duties as long as they do not include anything to do with that coach's teams.
9. No person shall coach with the Georgia Buckeyes that is currently under suspension from coaching in any other league.

BACKGROUND CHECKS

Background checks are mandatory for all Georgia Buckeyes coaches (head coaches and assistant coaches). Background checks will be conducted by the NWGYFL association.

1. Each League Member shall provide a Background Check Report, this includes each coach and/or any other individual who would be on the sideline.
2. This shall include, but not be limited to, convictions both inside and outside the State of Georgia, for the following, within the last 10 years:

4. Any fees pertaining to individual background checks are the sole responsibility of said coach

COACHES CONDUCT

1. Coaches should abide by both the Georgia Buckeyes and NWGYFL codes of conduct. Failure to do so will result in immediate disciplinary action.
2. Any coach who is ejected from a game shall immediately leave the park and any sight of the playing field for no less than twenty-four (24) hours from ejection and shall be suspended from the next regular season game. Said coach will not be allowed to participate in any practices during his suspension. If the same coach is removed because of misconduct at a game for a second time, said coach will be suspended for the remainder of the year. Further suspension of said coach shall be decided by the League Members after recommendations from the Commission Members.
3. No coach shall act in an unsportsmanlike manner (including, but not limited to taunting, intimidation or threats), at any time while at a location hosting a Georgia Buckeyes game.
4. Any head coach who has eleven healthy players available to participate in a game but refuses to complete said game shall be suspended for one (1) week and fined $100 unless the President finds that the refusal to complete the game was supported by reasonable player safety standards.
5. At the discretion of Georgia Buckeyes, any coach heard using profanity at a Georgia Buckeyes sanctioned event by a Georgia Buckeyes Commission Member or an Official may be ejected from the game and must be removed from the park.
6. At the discretion of Georgia Buckeyes, any coach may be removed or suspended at any time for any behavior that does not meet the ethical standards set forth by the League
7. Coaches should uphold themselves to the highest standard and continuously be setting a exemplary example for all League members.

PARENTAL CONSENT

1. It shall be the responsibility of the Athletic Director and Secretary to secure the written consent of a player's parents or legal guardian prior to a player participating in the League competition. It shall be assumed that parental consent has been obtained on all players that a League Member certifies on the official roster.
2. Each League Member shall have a medical physical on file before the first practice.

PLAYER ELIGIBILITY AND CONDUCT

1. Players should abide by both the Georgia Buckeyes and NWGYFL codes of conduct. Failure to do so will result in immediate disciplinary action.
2. Eligibility requirements can be found on the NWGYFL website (<https://www.nwgyfl.club/>)
3. Any participant who is on any other organized football team shall be ineligible to play with the Georgia Buckeyes.
4. Unsportsmanlike Conduct: Any player who displays unsportsmanlike conduct may be put out of the game and will not be allowed to play in his next scheduled game during the current Georgia Buckeyes season ending with the Super Bowl.
 - a. It will be the duty of the head coach to report to the Commission Member within forty-eight (48) hours of any player and/or coach ejected from a game. It will then be the duty of the League Member Representative to notify the President of the player and/or coach put out of the game. The League Member Representative must furnish to the President the name of the coach or the player and his jersey number.

- b. If the same player is removed from a second game because of misconduct, he shall be dismissed from any further participation in the Georgia Buckeyes and will be suspended from any other association with the team for the remainder of the current season. Further suspension of said player shall be decided by the Commission Members.
5. Any player heard using profanity at a Georgia Buckeyes sanctioned event by a Georgia Buckeyes Commission Member or an Official may be ejected from the game
6. Any player suspended by the league may be allowed to participate with the team during practice sessions, subject to the Commission Member's decision. On game day the player must stay behind the crowd control barrier at all times.
7. All Georgia Buckeye athletes are a representation of the organization and should act as such at all times. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action.

CONDUCT OF SPECTATORS – INCLUDING PARENTS

1. Parents and Spectators should abide by both the Georgia Buckeyes and NWGYFL codes of conduct. Failure to do so will result in immediate disciplinary action.
2. All persons other than players and shall remain behind a crowd-restraining barrier. However, parents may form a tunnel near the end of the field or other field entrance-exit point for players to run through before the game. After the players have run through the tunnel, parents must immediately return outside the crowd-restraining barrier. Any parent/spectator that fails to return or remain behind the crowd-restraining barrier, the Association will be assessed a $50.00 fine per parent.
3. Should spectators, including parents, and persons using a public address system to the game, display conduct unbecoming or detrimental to the Georgia Buckeyes, the Commission President shall have the responsibility of giving the head coach a first warning that, should this conduct continue, the team whose spectator's conduct is in question will be penalized to how the Commission sees fit.
4. Any Parent heard using profanity at a Georgia Buckeyes sanctioned event by a Georgia Buckeye Commission Member may face disciplinary action resulting up to a League suspension.

GAME SCHEDULE

All game schedules will be provided by the NWGYFL association prior to the start of the season.

PLAYOFFS, REGIONALS AND NATIONALS
